

(Milwaukee, WI)— Nearly $849,000 is waiting for Wisconsin taxpayers whose income tax refund checks were sent back to the Internal Revenue Service as undeliverable. There are 1,164 Wisconsin taxpayers on the list this year with an average check size of about $729. These checks can be reissued as soon as taxpayers correct or update their addresses with the IRS. In some cases, a taxpayer has more than one check waiting.

In Milwaukee County alone, there are 312 taxpayers on the list with checks totaling $260,000, and the average refund $833. Click here to view the 36 page list of Wisconsin residents who the IRS has been unable to contact regarding their refund check.

In addition, the Where's My Refund? tool on IRS.gov enables all taxpayers to check the status of their refunds. A taxpayer must submit his or her social security number, filing status and amount of refund shown on their 2006 return. The tool will provide the status of their refund and in some cases provide instructions on how to resolve delivery problems.
